

Minutes – CJC

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MEETING
11.29.2016	1 PM	COUNTY BOARD ROOM
Meeting Called to order	Robert Eaton
Attendees	Kathy Beeksma, Matt Mackenzie, Dana Wszalek, Anne Whiting, Chris Beirl, Mike Cashman, Teena Racheli, Amy Custer, Sam Ray, Norm Couture, Mark Perrine, Linda Bailey, Alison Spaude Filipczak, Jeanna Metalica, Amy O'Donahue, Justin Gilbertson, Val Westlund, Kelly McKnight,

Minutes:

Minutes were approved

New Members:

Dana Wszalek – Department of Corrections

Old Business:

Sub-committee reports:

Jail Population Review:

The population was down 20-30 people and then jumped up to 50 inmates over the weekend. There are 6 inmates housed in the Bayfield county jail.

TADPRO report:

Six people on TAD, two are partnered with Drug Court

Probation/Parole

There are four new agents graduating agent basic training next week. Unit 601 has 513 supervised cases; 21 are in jail on holds; 10 are in revocation status. Nine people were locked up on holds over the weekend.

Adult Drug court report:

23 active cases; Six participants are in phase 4.

Ashland Recycling report:

62 community service hours performed over the last month. Working with Community Corrections Employment program to establish a job site.

Minutes – CJC

Children of Incarcerated Parents:

Draft of the Safe Child Exchange is complete. This includes policies and procedures for volunteers, working with schools.

CCR (Coordinated Community Response)

Provided copies of Justice by the Bay newsletter.

On November 10th DOJ is doing a specialty training on strangulation

As noted above in Children of Incarcerated Parents there is work going on to provide safe child exchange sites and also a child advocacy center.

Northlakes Hope Program – SASE

8 active, 4 out, 27 released; consistent contact with 15 people. Housing is the biggest challenge;

.

New Business:

Round Robin

January 19th, there will be an ACES (Adverse Childhood Experiences) training designed for Individuals that work with people who have ACES issues.

Our next meeting will be January 31st, 2017, 1PM, in the county board room, second floor of the courthouse.