

The Ashland County Sheriff's Office

(ACSO) requires a $50 prepayment for service of a Writ of Execution. ACSO has 60 days to serve and attempt to satisfy the judgment on a Writ of Execution. If your execution includes the seizure of property to satisfy the judgment, that is located within Ashland County, please note the following:

Supplemental Hearing

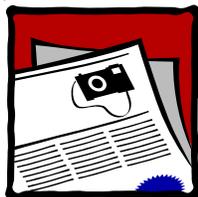

If your execution states that property can be seized to satisfy the judgment amount, unless the writ specifically identifies the property ownership (e.g., serial or VIN numbers), a supplemental hearing from the court may be necessary to determine ownership of property. This hearing is at the creditor's expense. At this hearing an order is issued indicating property ownership and what property can be seized by ACSO.

THE ASHLAND COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE WILL NOT SEIZE PROPERTY PURSUANT TO EXECUTION WITHOUT PROOF OF OWNERSHIP.

Bond

A bond of indemnity (provided by creditor) indemnifying (holding harmless) the Ashland County Sheriff in this action will be needed. The value of the bond shall be twice the value of the property to be seized.

Non-Refundable Deposit

A non-refundable deposit is required with executions involving seizure of property. This deposit is determined by factors including the item being seized, towing fees, storage, appraisers, deputy involvement, etc. This deposit is due before property seizure commences.

Sheriff's Sale of Property Seized from Writ of Execution

Once ACSO has possession of the seized property a sheriff's sale will be held to generate funds for your judgment. The fee to ACSO for the posting of the sale is $75. A separate fee for the sheriff sale of $75 will also be charged.

Notice of Sale shall be posted pursuant to Wis Stat. § 815.29(1). This notice shall be posted no fewer than 20 days prior to the sale.

At any time prior to sale, if the debtor claims an exemption under Wis Stat §815.18 (6a) the seizure and/or sale will be halted and any property seized will be returned to the debtor.
